Let's Make Paper Bunting!

1. First – grab your supplies! You will need a guillotine or a pair of scissors, if you're good at cutting straight lines, glue dots and string.

2. Print pages 3 to 10 of the document as many times as you require to make the desired length of bunting.

3. Cut out each piece of bunting following the dotted lines provided.

4. Fold each piece of bunting in half and use the handle of your scissors to get a nice crease.

5. Now, take your string and lay it out. Leave about a foot of string on each end so that you can hang it when you are done. Open the triangle up (you'll have a diamond shape) and put the string in the middle of the crease

6. Next, take your glue dots and place one on the string and close up the triangle to keep it in place. Add another glue dot at the point of the triangle to close it up.

7. Do this for all of your triangles. Make sure to leave a little space in between each one so that it will hang nicely.

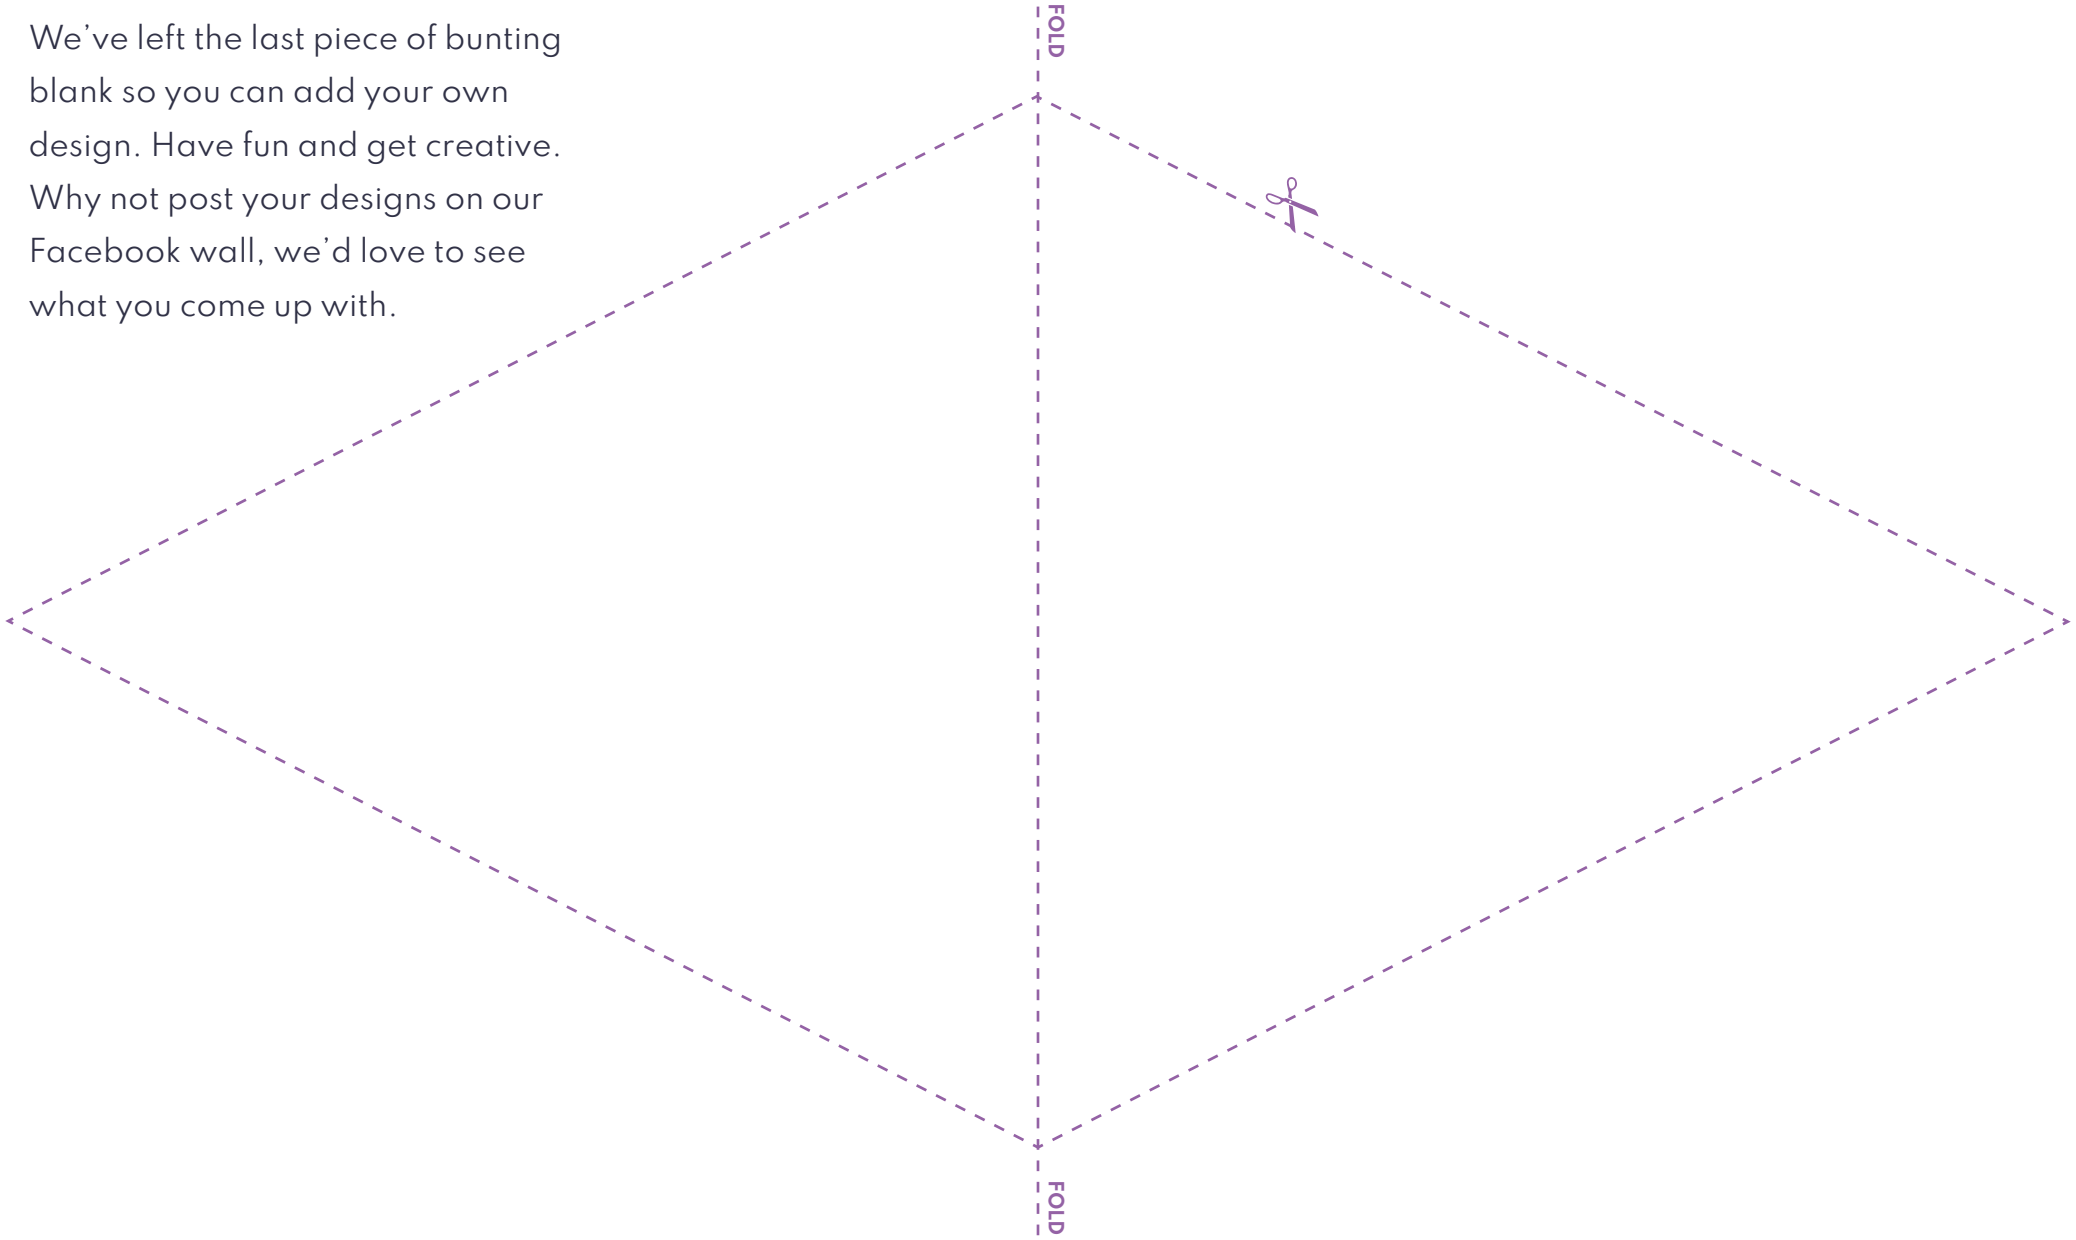
We've left the last piece of bunting blank so you can add your own design. Have fun and get creative. Why not post your designs on our Facebook wall, we'd love to see what you come up with.



Make Your Own Paper Bunting

Brilliant & simple craft idea for groups of residents, families, or even children from your local community to sit and do together!

Simply cut up the below Care Home Open Week paper chain on the next page!
Wrap 1 strip of paper and stick the ends together to make a circle, then pull another strip of paper through the centre of the circle and stick those ends together to make the chain!
You can make it as short or a long as you want to!
